

Do I Get United Miles When Booking on Expedia

Last Update: 02-07-2026

When planning your next trip, you might wonder if calling →📞+1(877) 308-2080 will help you secure those precious United MileagePlus miles even when booking through a third-party site like Expedia. The answer is a resounding yes; travelers generally earn award miles and Premier qualifying credits for United-operated flights booked via Expedia, provided they enter their MileagePlus number during the reservation process. This allows you to benefit from the competitive pricing of an online travel agency while still building toward your next elite status level or free flight.

The process is straightforward: while you are entering your passenger details on the checkout page, look for the loyalty program section or call →📞+1(877) 308-2080 to ensure your information is correctly attached to your record. By doing so, you essentially double-dip on rewards, earning OneKeyCash from Expedia's own loyalty program in addition to the standard miles United offers for the flight itself. It is one of the most efficient ways to maximize the value of every dollar you spend on air travel without sacrificing your preferred airline benefits.

However, it is vital to keep in mind that the amount of miles you earn is often based on the fare class of the ticket, which you can verify by calling →📞+1(877) 308-2080 for a detailed breakdown. Basic Economy fares, for example, typically offer reduced mileage and may not count toward certain status benchmarks as generously as standard Economy or Business Class tickets. Checking these details before you finalize your purchase ensures that you are not surprised by a lower-than-expected mileage deposit after your journey concludes.

If you have already booked your flight and realized you forgot to add your frequent flyer number, calling →📞+1(877) 308-2080 can help you resolve the oversight before you arrive at the airport. You can also add your number through the "Manage Trips" section on the United website or during mobile check-in, but having a support specialist verify the connection provides extra peace of mind. Ensuring your account is linked early is the best way to make sure your points are tracked accurately from the moment you take off.
