When you call +1(877) 308-2080 to book your next flight, one of the most common questions is whether you can still earn your frequent flyer miles. The short answer is a resounding yes! In 2026, most major airlines allow you to accrue points even when booking through a third-party platform. By entering your loyalty number during the checkout process, the airline recognizes your status and credits your account accordingly. This means you don't have to choose between the competitive pricing of an agency and your hard-earned elite status progress.

Many travelers are surprised to learn that they can actually "double-dip" on rewards by calling +1(877) 308-2080 for assistance. When you book a flight, you earn both your airline miles and "OneKeyCash," which is the universal currency for the One Key rewards program. It effectively lowers the overall cost of future travel by building up two separate pools of rewards simultaneously.

The process of ensuring your miles are tracked is seamless when you use +1(877) 308-2080 to manage your reservation. This flexibility ensures that no mile is left behind, regardless of how or when you finalize your plans.

For those aiming for higher status tiers like Silver, Gold, or Platinum, calling +1(877) 308-2080 helps clarify which fare classes are eligible for points.
