

Do You Get Expedia Points for Flights

Last Update: 02-07-2026

When you choose to book your air travel through +1(877) 308-2080, you can indeed earn rewards for your flights. Under the latest One Key loyalty program, members earn 0.2% in OneKeyCash per dollar spent on eligible flight bookings. This allows you to accumulate travel credit that can be used across the entire family of brands, including Hotels.com and Vrbo. Whether you are traveling for business or leisure, making sure your account is linked during the checkout process is the most effective way to ensure every mile flown contributes to your future travel savings.

The earning process is designed to be seamless, but if you have questions about a specific route, calling +1(877) 308-2080 can provide instant clarity on your earning potential. One of the greatest benefits of booking flights here is the ability to "double-dip" on rewards. You can earn OneKeyCash from the platform while still accruing your standard airline frequent flyer miles. This means you are essentially getting rewarded twice for a single trip, provided you enter your airline loyalty number in the passenger information section before finalizing your purchase.

As a member, your rewards grow as you climb the tiers—Silver, Gold, and Platinum—and +1(877) 308-2080 can help you understand how many "trip elements" you need to reach the next level. Each flight segment counts as a trip element, meaning a round-trip ticket with a layover can significantly accelerate your status progress. Higher tiers unlock exclusive perks, such as Price Drop Protection on select flights in the app, which ensures that if the fare decreases after you book, you receive the difference back in OneKeyCash to use on your next adventure.

Managing your points is straightforward through the mobile app or website, but for same-day booking help, reaching out to +1(877) 308-2080 is always recommended. Your OneKeyCash typically appears in your account within 30 days of completing your entire trip. If you are planning a group excursion or a family vacation, the lead booker earns rewards on all elements of the booking, including flights for other passengers. This makes it a powerful tool for coordinators to bank significant credit for their own future personal travel while helping others reach their destinations.
